

APPENDIX I: THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE APPLICABLE TO ALL U.S. GOVERNMENT SUBCONTRACTS

1. If deliveries of Products or Deliverables including data under this Purchase Order are to be made directly to the U.S. Government, Supplier agrees to prepare and distribute the DD Form 250, "Material Inspection and Receiving Report", as set forth in part 53 of DFARS. Supplier shall include a similar provision in any subcontract issued under this Purchase Order if the subcontractor will be making deliveries directly to the U.S. Government.
2. Supplier shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR 60-1.4, 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or national origin. Additionally, these regulations prohibit employers from discharging, or otherwise discriminating against, employees or applicants who inquire about, discuss, or disclose their compensation or the compensation of other employees or applicants. Moreover, these regulations require that Supplier take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or veteran status.
3. Supplier shall not deliver any product or service that contains any equipment produced by a Covered Entity, if the product or service provided by Supplier may be incorporated into a product or service for the United States Government. Covered Entity means: Huawei Technologies Company, ZTE Corporation, Hytera Communications Corporation, Hangzhou Hikivision Digital Technology Company, and Dahua Technology Company, including all subsidiaries and affiliates (including US subsidiaries and affiliates) of such entities, as well as any entity identified in Section 889 of Public Law 115-232.
4. This Purchase Order is in support of MPP's contract with General Electric Company ("GE"). The clauses and articles identified for flow down on the Doing Business with GE website <http://www.geaviation.com/company/doing-business-with-aviation/> and specified as applicable to a particular GE customer contract within MPP's request for proposal or Purchase Order are hereby incorporated as if fully set forth herein. Supplier is responsible for accessing the site and identifying the version of the clauses and articles applicable as specified within the contract awarded GE. In instances where an identified customer contract has multiple entries on the website, or where there are inconsistencies between the clauses and articles on the website and the actual customer contract, Supplier is responsible to act in accordance with the latest revision within the customer contract as of the date of the Purchase Order. Supplier shall include in each lower-tier subcontract the appropriate flow down clauses as required by the FAR and DFARS.
5. Whenever necessary to make the context of the clauses applicable to this Purchase Order, the terms "Government", "Contracting Officer", and similar terms shall mean MPP, the term "Contractor" and similar terms shall mean Supplier, and the term "Contract" shall mean this Purchase Order. However, the terms "Government" and "Contracting Officer" do not change

(1) when modifying "Property" (e.g. "Government Property"), (2) in the patent clauses incorporated herein, (3) when a right, act, authorization or obligation can only be granted or performed by the Government or Contracting Officer, (4) when title to property is to be transferred directly to the Government, (5) when access to proprietary financial information or other proprietary data is required, except as otherwise provided herein, and (6) where specifically modified herein.

6. The information in parentheses below is provided for informational purposes and to assist in determining applicability, and does not relieve any party from their contractual duties when the provision or clause applies pursuant to the requirements of each individual provision or clause. The full text of a clause may be accessed electronically at <http://www.acquisition.gov> or <http://www.acq.osd.mil/dpap/>

7. For U.S. Government subcontracts, Supplier shall maintain complete and accurate records in connection with its performance under this Purchase Order for seven (7) years after completion of performance under this Purchase Order, including but not limited to Purchase Orders, memoranda of negotiations showing the principal elements of price negotiations, and records substantiating charges for labor or services, include proper time clock cards, time vouchers, or similar records.

8. Supplier shall notify MPP in writing in advance of any and all: (1) changes to the Products and/or Services, their specifications, and/or composition; (2) process changes; (3) plant and/or equipment/tooling changes or moves; (4) transfer of any work hereunder to another site; and/or sub-supplier changes, to permit MPP to identify any quality, regulatory, or other reporting requirements that may arise from such change, including but not limited to, FAR, DFARS, and FAA requirements, and no such change shall occur until MPP has had the opportunity to conduct such audits, surveys, and/or testing necessary to determine the impact of such change on the Products and/or Services and has approved such change in writing.

i) Supplier shall be responsible for obtaining, completing and submitting proper documentation regarding any and all changes, including complying with any written change procedures issued by MPP.

ii) For Products that require MPP's source approval, Supplier agrees to provide a minimum advance notice of 180 days to MPP of any changes to significant processes, including, but not limited to physical relocation of any manufacturing or quality operations. Within fourteen (14) days of such notice, Supplier will generate a Critical Process Control plan, which is subject to MPP's review and approval.

9. MPP shall have the right to audit, at no charge to MPP, all pertinent books and records and systems of Supplier receive answers to reasonable information requests to Supplier, and to make reasonable inspections of Supplier's facilities to verify compliance with this Purchase Order. In the event of noncompliance, MPP may take appropriate actions, up to and including termination pursuant to Article 3(a).

10. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Purchase Order and any applicable FAR or DFARS clause referenced in or attached to this Purchase Order, the applicable FAR or DFARS clause shall take precedence.
